

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Construction Recruitment & Family Fun Day for Ethnic Minorities

Hong Kong • 16 May 2014 – It is not difficult to find more and more ethnic minority construction workers working at the construction sites. While they are standing for sunburn or getting all wet under extreme weather, they keep working hard and contribute to the development of Hong Kong. Today, in order to cope with the booming growth of the infrastructure projects, railway development and various construction works, the construction industry welcomes more ethnic minorities to join the workforce.

The Construction Industry Council (CIC), with the support from the Hong Kong Construction Industry Employees General Union and New Home Association, will coorganize “Construction Recruitment & Family Fun Day for Ethnic Minorities” on coming Sunday (18/5) at Henry G. Leong Yau Ma Tei Community Centre to attract more ethnic minorities to join the industry.

Around 200 vacancies as well as on-site interview will be offered to either skilled or non-skilled workers during the event. Positions include clerk, mechanic, site assistant, etc. Job seekers should apply in person and they should bring along with the original and copy of their HKID, job CV and trade test certificates for the on-site interview. Participating companies include Hsin Chong Construction Company Limited, Gammon Construction Limited, Mitsubishi Elevator Hong Kong Company Limited, U-Tech Engineering Company Limited and VINCI Construction Grands Projets.

Besides job recruitment, training information and fun games will be also provided at the venue. Interested parties who would like to join or learn more about construction industry could also join this free event. “Construction Recruitment & Family Fun Day for Ethnic Minorities” will be held on 18 May 2014 (Sunday), from 2:30pm to 5:30pm, at Henry G. Leong Yau Ma Tei Community Centre (Address: 60 Public Square Street, Yau Ma Tei, Kowloon). For enquiries, please call 2100 9113 or visit CIC website at www.hkcic.org.
