Young Lo Pan Award Presentation Ceremony 2016

Hong Kong · 16 July 2016 – Organised by Kwong Yuet Tong Hong Kong and co-organised by the Construction Industry Council (CIC), Vocational Training Council (VTC), and the Hong Kong Institute of Construction Managers (HKICM), the “Young Lo Pan Award Presentation Ceremony” was held today at the Lo Pan Temple, which is located at Ching Lin Terrace, Kennedy Town. The Ceremony aims to recognise young talent with outstanding performance and dedication in the construction industry, as well as to encourage more potential young people to join and ultimately contribute to the booming construction industry. The Ceremony was officiated by Mr. Paul CHAN, Secretary for Development, HKSAR.

The Young Lo Pan Award includes three categories: Engineering Management, Skilled Practitioners and Traditional Crafts. The awardees were selected based on their management or skill performance at work, continuing studies, knowledge and integrity on safety work procedures and interview performance, etc. The judging panel was composed of members from both the organiser and co-organisers and finally ten Young Lo Pan awardees, five traditional craft awardees and other winners were selected.

This year, a total of four female candidates were awarded with the “Young Lo Pan Award”, “Construction Manager Award”, “Traditional Craft – Joinery Award” and “Traditional Craft – Painting and Decorating Award”, showing that women practitioners can also perform with excellence.
