

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Construction Industry Council Urges the Industry to Vote in the District Council Election

Hong Kong • 1 December 2023 – The 2023 District Council Ordinary Election will be held on 10 December 2023, Sunday. The Construction Industry Council (CIC) urges registered voters in the construction industry as well as other sectors, to fulfill their civic responsibility to vote on the polling day for the candidate they prefer and trust, together we build a better community.

The work of the District Council is closely related to every individual in Hong Kong. It involves not only the welfare of residents, but also public facilities and environmental improvement works in the community, which are inextricably linked with the construction industry. Through casting their vote, registered voters of the industry will be able to elect capable persons to join the District Council and contributing to the development of Hong Kong.

For details of the polling day of the 2023 District Council Ordinary Election, please visit www.elections.gov.hk/dc2023/.

- END -

Media Enquiries

Corporate Communications Department

Tel: 2100 9000

Fax: 2100 9090

Email: corpcomm@cic.hk

About the Construction Industry Council

The Construction Industry Council (CIC) was formed in 2007 under the Construction Industry Council Ordinance (Cap. 587). The CIC consists of a chairman and 24 members representing various sectors of the industry including employers, professionals, academics, contractors, workers, independent persons and Government officials.

The main functions of the CIC are to forge consensus on long-term strategic issues, convey the industry's needs and aspirations to the Government, provide professional training and registration services, and serve as a communication channel between the Government and the construction industry.

Please visit www.cic.hk for further details.